Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago Railroad.

PITTSBURGH, December 12, 1859

I herewith submit, for the information of the public and all concerned, a copy of an order made on the 7th instant, by the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio, appointing me Receiver of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Rail Road Company, and I desire to make a statement of facts to the end that mis-statements and misapprehensions may be corrected.

1. Mr Charles Moran, one of the parties to the suit, is not as has been stated, President of the New York and Erie Rail Road Company; he was President of that Company, but signed his office sometime ago, and is now engaged in private business as a banker.

2. Mr Moran and Mr Von Hoffman, are, either in their own right or in trust for others, both Bondholders and Stockholders for the Company to large amounts, and may be regarded as the leading representatives of the principal interests in the Bonds and Stock of the Company held on the Continent of Europe. Messrs. Moran and Von Hoffman are sustained in their movement by other powerful interests in the Stock and Bonds of the Company held in this country; and by the action of Mr John Ferguson, Trustee, in all the mortgages of the Company, except the Allegheny Bridge Mortgage, and the Ohio and Pennsylvania first two Mortgages, the original Trustee of which, Mr John J Palmer, is dead — Mr Ferguson has already become, or will become, a party to the suit in Ohio.

3. A Receivership, or other like conservative measure, for the protection of the property from conflicting claims, had become inevitable. No intelligent Director, I believe, denies that fact: the debateable points were: Where the Receivership should be created, who should be Receiver, and what his duties.

4 It is not true, so far as I have knowledge, that the proceeding in Ohio was intended to be hostile to the interests of the Company or any of its creditors; it was a conservative movement to put the property under the control of a competent court, unt l the affairs of the Company could be readjusted on a permanent basis, and at the same time to preserve an independent operation of the road.

5. The moving parties, representing as they do, a vast interest in the Road, and having superior rights in it under First Mortgage Bonds, had an unquestionable right both in law and in morals to select the forum where their rights should be adjudicated. The Ohio Court selected was the proper forum, for the reasons among others, that, in that State, the corporation originated, and there is the greatest lenght of its Road, and its largest local traffic. Parties in interest in Pennsylvania have no just reason to complain that the Ohio Court was selected. In this opinion a majority of stockholders and creditors will agree.

6. The suit in Ohio was ex parte and on short notice, for the reason, that the moving parties anticipated and feared similar proceedings in Pennsylvania, by what they regarded as hostile interests.

7. It is not true, as has been reported, that I had lately been to New York instigating and aiding Bondholders to this movement against the Company, or that I have wrongfully aided in it at Cleveland. Up to the day when the suit was brought at Cleveland, (December 6) I knew nothing of its being intended I reached Cleveland on 6th December, called there by an urgent telegraphic message, not explaining its object, but which I could not disregard; and I was there placed in circumstances that forced me to an acceptance of the Receivership, as a measure of of protection against the suit assuming a hostile character, and the trust being placed in the hands of a stranger. Of the wisdom and integrity of my course at Cleveland, I leave all parties to judge, when all the facts are known.

8 On being served with process at Cleveland, on afternoon of 6th December, I notified the President and Acting President, of the suit, by telegraph, and suggested an immediate call of a meeting of the Board, at Crestline, and after the order for a Receivership was entered on 7th December, I telegraphed to J Edgar Thompson, at Philadelphia and G W Cass, at Pittsburgh, as follows:

Cleveland, Dec. 7, 1859

"The order for a Receiver is granted ex parte, without prejudice to the rights of the Company, to move to vacate, or amend I am named as Receiver, but my action will be conditional. In my course here I have aimed to prevent the proceeding from assuming a hostile character; if I had not consented to my name being used, a stranger would have been named and urged on the Court. The Receivership was inevitable.—The order extends it over the whole Road, and the powers are full. I will be in Pittsburgh tomorrow evening to meet the Board."

9 I took the oath and gave my bond as Receiver, on the morning of December 8th, on the advice of the largest private Stockholder in the Company, a man owning over $160.000 of the stock, whom I had called to Cleveland, by telegraph, for consultation, and who became my surety.

10 I reached Pittsburgh on morning of 9th instant, and found Mr. Du Puy in possession of the Company's property, as "Sequestrator," under proceedings taken two days after the suit brought in Ohio, and after notice as above of my appointment and I found, also that his cirulars badgeoned over the whole line, claiming jurisdiction as Sequestrator, in defiance of my authority, and I have since advised that after my arrival here and notification to the President, Mr Thomson, and to Mr. Du Puy, of my authority, and while Mr. Du Puy's acts as Sequestrator were well known to Mr. Thomson, the Secretary of the Company, A. Bradly, left Pittsburgh and went over the line with the written authority of Mr Thomson, as President, to collect and receipt in his name, money held by the Company's Agents, and that money has been thus collected Up to the time I came to Pittsburgh, on morning of December 9th, "I had made no move to execute my authority, nor even consented to its public announcement, expecting first to meet the Board of Directers and report my doings for their consideration and action, and to be much governed by their proceedings, as to whether I would hold the trust or resign it as I had reserved the right to do The action of the local District Court here, aided as it was by the Chief Executive officers having knowledge of my proceedings, left me no alternative but to assert and maintain my authority as Receiver, and I took steps accordingly. The public and all concerned who may therefore judge who is responsible for hasty proceeding and the evils to to the business of the Road, for conflicting jurisdiction and divided authority. My authority was prior in time and general, the other was special and local, yet asserted beyond any jurisdiction claimed by the Court granting it; hence the evils of conflict and divided authority.

11. It is not true, as had been stated, that I am hostile to the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company In its proper sphere I am a friend to that Company, and I look upon its Railroad as a splendid monument of the wealth and public spirit of Pennsylvania and of engineering genius and skill, and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company should always be a friend and ally of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; but I am free to say I am not friendly to the Chief Executive management of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, when it lays its powerful hand upon the vitality and independence of the noble property, to wit: the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne, and Chicago Railroad, in which I have staked my fortune, to which I have devoted the best energies of the years of my life, and which it has been my pride and my hope to see developed to its proper rank, as a great national line among American Railways, productive alike of good to the public, good to the communities on its route, good to the great cities that are its termini, and good to all who have invested their money or property in it.

For these ends I have labored, and for these ends I will labor so long as I have any connection with the Road as a Director and an officer of the Company, or as Receiver under the powers now vested in me. The extent and charater of those powers will appear in the order itself,

JOSEPH K. EDGERTON, Receiver.

[Here follows the order made by the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio, appointing Mr. Edgerton as Receiver, empowering him to take possession of the road, defining his powers and duties, &c,—the substance of which has already appeared in the Sentinel.

Small Pox in a Railroad Car.

Quite an amusing scene occurred in the cars some time ago, between New Brunswick and Princeton, and as I was an eye witness, I consider it too good to be lost, so through your columns I will present it to the public.

When the cars stopped at the Princeton depot, a gentleman and lady, with considerable baggage, entered the one in which I was sitting after having their baggage safely locked up in the baggage car, with the exception of a small bandbox, which the gentleman brought in the cars with him. They took a seat near me, the gentleman facing the lady; the band box he placed on a seat behind her As she was rather good looking than otherwise, I took the liberty of inquiring of a gentleman sitting near me who they were, and received the information desired. The train started and I thought no more of the above mentioned couple, but was gazing out of the window of the car, when I heard a voice near me exclaim:

"Sir!"

This was spoken rather loudly, and with considerable emphasis. I looked around, and my eyes fell immediately upon the lady and gentleman before referred to. I saw at a glance there was something wrong for the lady looked pale, her lips quivered, and she was the picture of distress.

"What did you say, sir; what did you say?" cried the lady, while from the change of her countenance, I felt assured that he had said something that was rather against the grain.

"The small box is behind you ma'm," said the young gentleman, with a look of surprise at the, young lady's altered appearance

"The small pox behind me!" screamed she at the top of her voice. "Where, where, Mr. Y., where? I have never been—"

"Behind you, ma'am, on the next seat behind you," said the young gentleman in a high tone, for the cars made such a rattling that he could not have been heard if he had attempted to speak lower.

"Oh! Mr Y. for heaven's sake, save me! do—oh do—I know I shall catch it; I never had it; I never have been vaccinated—and—and—oh let me out; let me out, oh, let me go into another car—I can't stay here—I—I—I—I'll surely catch it—I feel it already—it's coming—yes, it's coming—ough—ough." Then calming herself a little, she said very coaxingly:

"Oh! Mr. P. wont you let me get out of this car, I never have been vaccinated—and"

The young gentleman looked astonished. He had been trying to get a word in edgewise, but it was no use. At last he made out:

"What under the Heaven is the matter with you!" said he, as he stopped to take breath.

"The small box is on the seat behind you," thundered Mr. Y. This was enough From the manner in which Mr. Y. spoke, she thought he was frightened too, so with a bound she cleared the seat, and made for the door. Several gentlemen thinking she meant to kill herself, rushed to her, and detained her from going out of the car.

"Let go of me," said she. "I tell you let go of me—I will go out. I know I'll catch it, I tell you I never had it, and I have never been vaccinated and if I catch it I'll die—yes, I know I will—oh, let me out, let me out—oh please let me out, I have never been vaccinated—I—I" and the tears began to run in great profusion

"Mr Y., I call on you for protection," screamed the affrighted lady. "Oh let me out, let me out, I feel it coming, yes I do, oh, oh, ha, hee—hee," cried the young lady, while the tears gushed forth like rain. "I have never been vaccinated—let me out—let me out—I'll will catch the small pox."

"What does all this mean," exclaimed several gentlemen, but no one knew. At least Mr. Y got near the lady, and with a voice like thunder said, "there is no small pox in the cars! What under heaven are you making such a fuss about?"

"No small pox in the cars, sir—no small pox in the cars, sir! Why, you told me that—that—the small pox was on the seat behind me; I know I have got it; I tell you I have never been vaccinated. Oh! Mr. Y., it is all your fault—yes, all you fault—you seated me there—yes you did, and you knew it—I'll tell my parents of you, too—let me get out—let me get out," cried she, while her eyes fairly glistened with rage

"I tell you ma'am, the small pox is not in the cars, and I have not said so. It is the small BOX," said he with a great of emphasis, at the same time holding up the hand box before her. She stood gazing at the box for some minutes during which time not a word was spoken, and if it had not been for the noise of the cars as they sped on their way, one might have heard a pin drop. At last she drew a long breath, and said she:

"Oh, I am so glad! I thought you said small pox, and I have never been vaccinated—but—" and remembering where she was, she sank down in the seat nearest to her, and did not raise her head again until she arrived at her place of destination, when she took her departure from the cars, with her head hanging low, nor did she raise it until the cars had got nearly out of sight—Those who witnessed the laughable scene of the small hand box, will never forget it, and many a jolly laugh I have had over it, as I repeated the story to my friends.

The Reason.

They tell me that I am handsome yet,
And all the ladies say,
"Do look at him! the dear old man
Grows younger every day."
And when each friend asks, "At your age
How came you free from ills?"
I always answer, "In my youth
I paid my Printer's Bills!"

We are afraid very few of our readers will receive such compliments from the ladies, when they grow old—unless they mend their manners and become more punctual.

How Jack became a Democrat.

The most bigoted and unreasonable party man I ever met with, was Jack

Jack was a red hot abolitionist, and his chief pleasure seemed in making the fact as notorious as possible. His friends and associates, with one consent, pronounced Jack a bore and his

Have Your Quarters Ready!—Our carrier desires us to give notice that he will be round with his Annual Address early on Monday morning. It is rich and racy, containing both truth and poetry, and he hopes the ublic whom he has faithfully served the past year, through sunshine and storm, heat and cold, will remember his services, and have their quarters ready when he calls.

President's Message.—The President, tired of waiting for the House to organize, sent in his Message on Tuesday. We publish it in a Supplement, so as to relieve our columns of its length and give our readers other and more interesting matter.

The message is of medium length and gives a full and fair view of the state of our country and its foreign and domestic affairs. On the everlasting Kansas question, the President takes the ground that the Supreme Court settled the question of slavery in the territories, giving to all the right to take their slaves into new territories, and have them protected there under the the Constitution, and that neither Congress nor the people of the territory have any authority to annul or to impair this vested right. Nothing, the President contends, can be done with the matter, until the territory becomes a state This opinion, however acceptable to the South, does not agree with the views generally entertained by northern Democrats, and we much fear its promulgation will add but little to the harmony of the party, and have a disastrous effect on the next campaign. The whole matter belongs strictly to the people of the territory, and ought to be left for them to dispose of as they think best.

No Organization.—Congress is still busily engaged doing nothing Speechmaking and squabbling, with an occasional quarrel and talk of pistols and coffee, fill up the time which ought to be devoted to the public business In the meantime the mail contractors, who by the neglect of the last Congress to pass the necessary appropriation bill, have been left without pay for their services, are pressing their claims for an immediate appropriation, and have notified Congress that unless means are taken to pay them before the first of January, they will be compelled to throw up their contracts and stop carrying the mails. The inconvenience to the whole country of having the mails stopped must be obvious to the meanest capacity; but our Solons do not appear to see it; or if they do, they think it of less importance than the "culled pusson" who forms the great staple of their debates. What a blessing it would be if all the monomaniacs, north and south, who seem only to have the one idea of slavery in their addled pates, could be driven out of Congress, and their places filled by sensible men who could devote themselves to the interests and business of the white element in our popu'ation. It is time they should receive attention; the blacks have monopolized the time of Congress long enough.

On Thursday, Mr. English nominated Charles L. Scott of California for Speaker, who, he said, ought to be satisfactory to every national man. The 24th ballot was then taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	210
Necessary to a choice	106
Sherman	102
Scott	83
Gilmer	14
Scattering	11

The delay to organize is entirely owing to the obstinacy of the republicans, who persist in running Sherman, when it is evident he cannot and ought not to be elected. If they would nominate a more national man—one less tinctured with abolitionism, and free from the charge of endorsing Helper's infamous book—he could be elected; but they refuse to do this, and seem determined to force Sherman on the House, or prevent any business being done.

Health of Senator Douglas.—Our readers will be gratified to learn that Mr. Douglas' health is so far restored that he was able to take his seat in the Senate on Monday and Tuesday last, where he was hailed with the most flattering testimonials from his brother Senators.

Mr. D's health is so far reestablished that he has abandoned the intention of spending the winter in Florida, and will remain in Washington.

Minnesota.—On the 15th inst., the Minnesota Legislature elected Morton S. Wilkinson, U. S. Senator, to succeed Gen. Shields, whose term expired in March last. The first ballot stood—Wilkinson 79, Shields 33 W. A. Gorman 1—Mr. Wilkinson is a Republican of the ultra Seward stripe.

The "Martyr" John Brown.

As many ostensible christians persist in canonizing the murderous old ruffian who met his deserts at Charlestown, and claim that he has sanctified the gallows, which hereafter will be looked upon with as much reverence as the cross we give below the evidence that he was guilty of the most ba barous murders in Kansas, actually dragging out of their beds and murdering six unoffending men in one night! This was the first bloodshed in that miserable contest, and the cause of all that followed. It has been said in excuse for this atrocity, that Brown was crazed by having two sons killed in Kansas, and that he perpetrated it to avenge their deaths. This is utterly false, as the dates of the different transactions show that Brown's murders at Ossawatomie were committed nearly two months before his sons were killed, and were in fact the cause that led to their death. And yet in the face of this damning evidence of the guilt of this hoary ruffian, we see him held up as a saint and martyr, and even clergymen desecrating their pulpits by blasphemously comparing him with, or even elevating him above, the Saviour of mankind. Out upon such madness and blasphemy!

Read the letter below, from a correspondent of the State Journal, the leading republican journal in the state, and then say if any sane, honest, or christian man or woman can consistently or conscientiously hold up such a blood stained murderer as a martyr, hero, or a model for imitation:

Correspondence of the Indianapolis Journal.

More about John Brown's Career

Lawrence, Kansas, Dec. 17.

A "John Brown" anti-slavery meeting was held in Lawrence last evening, Dec. 16th After some of the speakers had lauded Brown as a second Jesus, and one of them alluded to the Pottawotamie massacre, which has been laid at John's door, Mr Stevens said he did not believe John Brown had anything to do with it; but there was a gentleman present who could testify to that fact. "Name him," "name him," several called out, "It is Captain Walker," (now Sheriff of Douglas County and one of the bravest of the Free State leaders.) Captian Walker arose and said, "Gentlemen there is no use in keeping back the truth or perverting facts. John Brown told me himself that he was present at the murder of those men at Pottawotamie Creek." This startled like a thunder clap the defenders of Brown. He proceeded, "I am ready to take an oath that John Brown made such a statement to me. I know more about this matter than I can state, especially as it would implicate as actors in that murder, some persons now in this room John Brown had those men in his power, and he could have kept them prisoners. For himself, he never could justify taking a man prisoner and the deliberately cutting his throat Old Titus, whom he took prisoner, had threatened to cut his throat, had insulted his wife, and threatened her life, yet he never felt justified in taking his life when his pri oner."

Gov Charles Robinson also said that he believed that John Brown had acknowledged to him he was present and approved of the killing of those men on Pottawotamie Creek He had not and could not justify the excesses committed by Free State men after they had the civil power in their hands.

Dr Adair, a nephew of John Brown, was questioned in reference to John Brown's connection with the Pottawotamie massacre. He said John Brown had told him that he was present at the killing of those men. But there were palliating circumstances connected with it.

I may add that there is no question what ever, from what I have heard from persons who know the facts, that John Brown planned and carried out that massacre The facts come to me from men who stand among the most truthful of men in Kansas. The truth is, the less Republicans lionize Old Brown, the better "Redpath," who is lionizing him for the purpose of making money from the sales of his life, may stand well with Eastern Abolitionists as to truthfulness, but does not stand so with people in Kansas. Our best Republicans in Kansas know that he has willfully lied in his recent statements about John Brown. KANSAS.

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago R R.—We have nothing definite in regard to the difficulties between this company and its bondholders, although the belief that an amicable arrangement or compromise will be effected seems to gain ground We hope such may be the fact, and that such changes may be made in the management of the road as will restore public confidence and satisfy the stockholders as well as bondholders that their investment is safe—We have always contended that with proper management this ought to be one of the best paying railroads in the west, and we have as yet seen nothing to induce us to change this opinion.

The District Court at Pittsburgh has ordered T. Haskins Du Puy, the Sequestrator, to apply out of the revenue of the Road, such amount as may be reasonably sufficient for the payment of employees, the making of necessary repairs, and other expenses. The order did not cover the back wages of the employees.

The Board of Directors on the Fort Wayne, and Chicago Road met at the Lapiere House, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, and appointed a Committee to confer with the Committee of New York bondholders, now in session

LATER.—By last night's mail we learn that the committee of bondholders and board of directors of the road, on Thursday, after a very harmonious session, agreed upon W. B Ogden, of Chicago, as Receiver.

J. K. Edgerton, Receiver, appointed by the U S. District Court of Ohio, has resigned.

Gibson Bailed.—W. H Gibson, the Ohio Treasury defaulter, has been admitted on bail in the sum of $10,000, to appear before the Court, January 26th, 1860, when the motion for new trial will be argued. He has gone home to Tiffin.

Stolen Goods Recovered.—This morning two boxes of goods, stolen from Col. Truesdale, of Detroit, were recovered at our depot by officers who had traced them here. The goods consisted of valuable wearing apparel, jewelry, &c, to a large amount Col. Truesdale had been abroad, leaving his goods locked up in his house; on his return the robbery was discovered, and the officers finding two boxes had been shipped under suspicious circumstances at Royal Oak for Fort Wayne, came here and found they were part of the stolen property. The thieves had previously been arrested and are in jail in Detroit About $2,000 worth of goods were stolen.

☞ There are 568 prisoners in our Penitentiary—far more than can be properly taken care of, or profitably employed. It is certainly time Gov. Willard should come to his senses, and allow the work to be commenced on the new prison located here by the commissioners.

Sent to the Penitentiary.—Our Common Pleas Court has been doing a wholesale business this week.

On Saturday last, at a special term of the Court, Wm Countryman was found guilty of receiving stolen goods: on Monday he was sentenced to the penitentiary for 3 years, and disfranchised 3 years

On Tuesday, Mary Ann Bush was convicted of perjury, and sentenced to the penitentiary for 2 years.

On Wednesday, Wm J Langan was acquitted on a charge of stealing a coat from Daniel O'Connell, at the Palace Hall.

On Thursday, John Shuey was convicted of stealing clothing in Lafayette township, and sentenced to the penitentiary 1 year, and to be disfranchised 2 years.

They have all been sent off to Jeffersonville, except John Shuey. He is the only prisoner now in our jail—a fact which speaks well for our county.

Another Murder in Indianapolis.—Indianapolis is getting to be a hard place, and murders are becoming as common as in much larger cities. On Wednesday the dead body of a man was discovered in Pogue's Run, at the crossing of East Street. There were two pistols shot wounds above the left eye. His name it is supposed was Edward Ott, and he is said to be a plasterer, and to have been some time in the city. No money was found on his person, nor is there any clue to the murderers.

☞ There is a large amount yet due on the subscription for keeping the Free Schools open last season, which ought to be paid up. The trustees had to use part of the funds which belong to the coming year, in order to make up the deficiency, and now hope the delinquents will pay without further delay Mr M F Barber will shortly call on them for the purpose of collecting the subscriptions, and we hope, for the credit of our city, that they may be paid.

☞ We have had enough snow this week to keep the sleighing good, and it remains first-rate It is seldom we have as long a spell of uninterrupted good sleighing in this region as we are now enjoying, and, it is perhaps needless to add that it has been fully improved

The Thermemeter this morning stood at 15° below Zero.

Clerk of the Supreme Court.—At the democratic convention held at Delphi, Carroll Co, on the 24th inst, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates from this county to the State Convention, to be held on the 11th day of January next, be and they are hereby instructed to support, first and last, JAMES H STEWART, as a candidate for the nomination of Clerk of the Supreme Court. That we unhesitatingly recommend him to the Democracy of Indiana, as one of the standard bearers of our party in the campaign of 1860! That from his 25 years experience as Clerk of the Circuit Court of this county, he is eminently fitted for that position; and that from his life long adherence to the principles of democracy, and the uniform success that has always attended him in the political contests of the county, as well as his gentlemanly deportment and extensive acquaintance throughout the State, he will add strength to the democratic ticket, and give it a prestige of victory.

Citizens' Bank.—J. D. Nuttman, at his Bank on Calhoun Street, north of Reed's Drug Store, receives any current Bank Notes on deposite, and gives certificates payable in gold, at 30 days after date This is a favorable arrangement for those wishing to procure specie.

☞ We are under renewed obligations to MOSES DRAKE, for a can of the largest, best, and finest oysters we ever had the pleasure of eating. MOSES is a liberal man—a gentleman and scholar—and his remembrance of the printer during this season of festivity shows that his heart is in the right place.

His reading room still continues a centre of attraction, and is nightly thronged with young men, reading news from all parts of the world, and acquiring much valuable information, who but for this might be driven to resort to questionable places, and acquire habits that would lead to misery and destruction.

If any one wants a dish of good oysters, served up right, DRAKE'S is the place to get it. He also sells oysters by the can—the best and freshest that can be got—on reasonable terms. Lovers of oysters give him a call.

DENTISTRY.—Dr Talbot has been practising the dental profession in this city for a year, during which time he has executed some fine specimens of his skill as a dentist, giving entire satisfaction to all who have availed themselves of his services, and acquiring a high reputation. He has had many years experience, and is without doubt one of the first dentists in the country.—We therefore feel we are doing a favor to those afflicted in their teeth, in directing them to a place where their afflictions can surely be remedied.

Cheap Music.—We refer lovers of good music to the advertisement of "Our Musical Friend," and "Solo Melodist," published by C. B. Seymour & Co., 107 Nassau Street, New York. We have received copies of both works, and can confidently recommend them as the best and cheapest music books published. Our Musical Friend contains 12 full sized pages of choice piano and vocal music, beautifully printed, price only 10 cents a number, $5 00 per year or $2 50 for six months The Solo Melodist contains 12 pages of music for the flute, violin, accordeon, &c. for 10 cents, or $2 50 per year. The music furnished in these publications for one year, could not be procured in any other form for $100.

☞ Elbridge G. Paige, the originator of the New York Mercury, and the author of the "Dow Jr. Sermons," committed suicide at San Francisco on the 4th inst

Revolution in the Stone Crock Business.—H N. Ward, at his Queensware, and China establishment, Calhoun Street, opposite the public square, is now selling stone crocks, of the best quality, from the first Ohio manufactories, at the reduced price of EIGHT CENTS A GALLON! He will keep a large stock so as to be able to fill all bills from country dealers at an hour's notice Ward is doing much for the country, and building up quite a reputation for our city as a wholesale point, by introducing the first quality of goods—he won't keep anything else—and selling them so much below the ordinary prices of the indifferent ware heretofore sold here.

He is now selling off the remainder of his Toys, Motto Cups, Vases, and other Holiday Gifts at a great reduction. They must be sold and those who call first will get the best bargains.

WASHINGTON, December 27.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in his report does not doubt the actual receipts of the Treasury for the present and next fiscal year will be fully equal to the estimates. If the appropriations made at the present session do not exceed the amounts contained in the estimation, it is believed they can be met with ordinary and extraordinary receipts provided by law.

The estimated balance that will be in the Treasury by the 30th of June next is only $3,530 000, and leaves no margin for additional appropriations.

If therefore the appropriations should exceed the estimates, or Congress should determine to provide within this period for the payment of any portion of the public debt, it will become necessary to make provision for such contingences If additional demands are created upon the Treasury by legislature during the present Congress, provision must be made to meet them by such increase of tariff duties as may be required for that purpose; in such events he respectfully refers Congress to his last report, containing the views of the Department on that subject, as no provision was made for the permanent redemption of any portion of the $5,000,000 of Treasury notes, as the authority for issuing them will expire on the 30th day of June next. It will be necessary for Congress to extend the law for that purpose to another period.

The Postmaster General gives an interesting account of the affairs of the Department and advocates various reforms, and trusts Congress will either give its express sanction to the specific mail contract between Portland and N Orleans by voting the necessary appropriation, or will indicate for the department such a course as shall warrant it in closing with some one of the proposals which have been received and now held under advisement. He urges action to secure suitable postoffices at New York and Philadelphia, and recommends the repeal of the clause in the act of 1858, which declares that in forwarding the mails to foreign countries the preference shall be given to American over foreign steamers, when departing from the same port, for the same destination, within three days of each other.

Dispatch is of the highest importance in the mission of this department, and hence that legislation which provides for retarding instead of accelerating the mails may be safely pronounced at least extraordinary its its character. The Postoffice Department, according to the theory of its organization, should be self-sustaining, and because of its peculiar situation, its functions should not be a charge on the common treasury. He advocates the Abolition of the franking privilege, and substitutes prepayment by stamps, when the abuses would fall where they belong.

The steamer Anacorira, which hastily left Washington several days ago, has nothing to do with the Maryland oyster difficulties, as supposed but is on a secret Government servicce, the nature of which can not be ascertained. She is fully armed.

Senator Brown, of Mississippi, intimated to day his intention to attack that part of the President's Message which suggests the Judiciary as the proper tribunal to afford adequate remedy in case of interference with the rights of master to his slave in the Territories, instead of recommending Congressional action for protection.

The Secretary of the Navy in speaking of the successful termination of the Paraguaye xpedition, says that the cost of maintaining the seven purchased vessels, in commission, is not much greater than that of maintaining a single frigate; their acquisition enabled the Department to adopt more efficient measures for the suppression of the African slave trade. Since the commencement of the present Administration, twenty steam vessels have been added to the Navy; he therefore renews the recommendation for still further increase in the Navy.

The Secretary of War says out of an army of nearly 17,500 men not more than 11,000 are available for active service in the field, scattered over three millions of square miles. He hopes to make such alteration in the disposition of troops next season as will prevent any repetition of outrages in future on the Southern and Mexican border He recommends the enlistment of men for mounted corps for six monts, beginning in May. In actual battle with Indians success is more owing to individual skill in arms and horsemanship than in discipline. He recommends that provision should be made for retiring disabled and infirm officers as a means of increasing the efficiency of the army. It is not deemed advisable to proceed to the manufacture of rifles and cannon beyond those required for experimental purposes.

The Secretary of the Istarior says that during the five quarters ending September, the sale of lands yielded over $2,107,000. Three million six hundred and seventeen thousand have been located with bounty warrants. Among several recommendations is, that a law be passed in the spirit of liberality to the settlers on unoccupied lands, allowing to each two years from date of filling his declaratory statement within which to make his proof and pay for his land, and at the same time making it incumbent on the President to offer at public sale, by proclamation, all lands that may be surveyed by the authority of Congress, at any time within two years after the plots of the survey have been approved.

He also suggests the manner of preventing frauds. All things considered, our relations with the various Indian tribes continued during the past year in a satisfactory condition He regrets to add that if the official documents furnish sufficient evidence to justify belief, some of the most atrocious cases of murder and rapine have been committed by white men wearing the disguise of Indians.

[Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.

Near the close of the last session of Congress, two prominent citizens of Louisiana presented a memorial charging Senators Slidell and Benjamin, of that State, with having procured an act of Congress surreptitiously confirming the Houmas land grant, by which five hundred families were turned out of their homes in Louisiana, and several hundred thousand dollars' worth of property voted into the pocket of Slidell, with the allegation that Mr Benjamin received certainly ten thousand, and probably forty thousand dollars for his services in procuring the grant.—Congress having no time to examine the question, passed a joint resolution suspending the issuing of the patent until the end of this session of Congress, with a knowledge that this question would come before the committee of private land claims at this session, and that the accusers are now in this city, renewing the charges. Mr. Benjamin, who is the party implicated, has been appointed Chairman of the committee to investigate his own conduct.

The Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee of the Senate have as yet done nothing but send for witnesses. It is said that Senator Seward will be summoned before the Committee on his return. Most of the Senators have left this city to spend their Christmas holidays either at their homes or in New York and Philadelphia.

The Keystone Club of Pennsylvania, the most influential organization in the State, numbering among its members Mr Buchanan and all the leading Democrats of Pennsylvania, at a recent meeting in Philadelphia, adopted resolutions embodying the doctrine of popular sovereignty, as explained by Senator Douglas. It remains to be seen whether the men who have proscribed Mr Douglas will attempt to read the Keystone Club out of the Democratic party; the Club which the citizens of Cincinnati will remember was a most powerful agent in securing the nomination of Mr Buchanan in 1856.

WASHINGTON, December 25.

A large number of the mail contractors have informed and continue to inform the Department that unless Congress makes appropriations early in January for the payment of what is due them they cannot continue the service which has been maintained by them in a manner although satisfactory to the department, but at great sacrifices Their credit is now exhausted. Should they surrender their contracts, the extraordinary expenses of restoring the service will amount to not less than a million dollars—probably more. Their expectations that Congress, would promptly pass a bill for their relief have been disastrously disappointed

The Department has the money to pay all the sums now due for the quarter ending with September, but not the legal authority for that purpose. The expences of the current quarter are not due till February Over $4.000.000 are required on account of arrearages for the year ending with last June The statements of indebtedness to contractors on which they have raised money to the amount of $2,000,000 are in the hands of persons in this city.

WASHINGTON, December 28.

Governor Wise, in his last Richmond speech, broadly intimates that the Virginian military recently marched past the White House, and that the President did not even notice them.—As this remark of the Governor occasions some comment here, it may not be amiss to say that the President at that time was not at home, and did not know until he read the speech that the troops had passed the White House. The President is uniformly marked in his attentions to all visitors.

The speech of Mr. Morris (of Ill) to day in part condemnatory of the President and Administration, was made against Douglas and other Democratic Members of the Illinois delegation, who arow their desire to promote the harmony of party.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, December 27.

SENATE.—The President's annual Message was brought in by the President's Secretary.

Mr Iverson, of Georgia, moved that it be read.

Mr Collamer, of Vermont, objected, as the understanding among the Senators was that no business should be done during the Christmas week.

The question was debated by Davis, Fessanden, Bayard and others, when the motion of Mr Iverson prevailed: yeas, 28; nays, 12 The Secretary of the Senate then read the Message.

Mr Clingman, of North Carolina, proposed to postpone the consideration of the Message till January 3d.

Mr Bright, of Indiana, said it would be better to adopt the usual course. He moved that the Message and documents be printed, but asked that this motion lie over till after the holidays, as the Senate had no printer yet.

This course was pursued, and the Senate adjourned till Friday.

HOUSE.—The Message of the President was received.

Mr John Cochrane, of New York, moved that it be laid on the table until the House effects an organization.

Mr Craig, of North Carolina, moved to amend the motion so that the Message be received and read.

Mr Cochrane accepted the amendment.

Much excitement prevailed, the Republican members calling for the yeas and nays.

A call of the House was ordered.

Mr Stanton, of Ohio, argued that there was no precedent for reading the Message when the House was not organized.

Mr Craig then withdrew his amendment, and the original motion was agreed to.

Mr Houston, of Alabama, offered a resolution proposing a temporary Speaker for ten days, nothing to be done in the meantime except the passage of a bill to meet the deficiencies and liabilities of the Post-office Department, when the office should become vacant, and the House proceeded to the election of a Speaker

The Republican side objected to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr Houston wanted it made known that the objection came from the Republicans, who pretended great sympathy for the Government mail contractors, but are not willing to adopt a measure with the view to their relief.

Mr Washburne, of Illinois, said they would accept the resolution if John Sherman's name was inserted in the blank.

Mr Washburn, of Maine, wished it to be known that the Republicans want to elect a Speaker for the whole term.

The roll of the House was called preliminary to a vote for Speaker.

The House then proceeded to the 22d ballot, with the following result:

Whole number, 208; necessary to a choice, 105.

Sherman, 101; Scott, of California, 17; Houston, 15; Gilmer, 14; Bocock, 14; McClay, 12; scattering, 35. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, December 28.

The Senate Committee on Printers have empowered Mr Hieatt, the Superintendant of Public Printing, to appoint a Printer to do the necessary work until the Senate succeeded in selecting a proper person for that office. Rumor says the Superintendent will appoint General Bowman.

In the House to day, Mr Cox of Ohio, declared that as a Northern Democrat he could not vote for a member of the Southern Opposition for Speaker.

The surmise that the necessities of the creditors of the Government would ultimately seduce members into an organization is taking active shape.

Mr Bristow, of Kentucky, to day made an attempt to present a memorial from these creditors which, however, was not received. It was understood that the memorialists desire to warn members that they will not proceed with the public work.

Messrs Colfax, of Indiana, and Clark B Cochrane, of New York, who were the only persons present at the interview between Judge Douglas and Horace Greeley, say that Mr Kellogg's statements are utterly unfounded, and that all that passed is correctly and fully stated in the notes of Messrs Douglas and Greeley. They are willing to make this statement in the House, if requested.

Mr Haskins said he was conservative in principles, and should vote now, as heretofore, for John Sherman, whose Union sentiments met his entire approbation.

Mr English asked if he had not voted for Mr. Gilmore.

Mr Haskens replied he had voted for Gilmore because in the Thirty fifth Congress he stood alongside of himself and Mr Sherman, in opposition to the Lecompton policy of the Administration, which Mr English sought to cover up by a bill, which, in his opinion, was the meanest bill before the last Congress. (Laughter)

Mr English called attention to the fact that Mr Gilmore himself voted for the Engish Bill.—(Laughter)

Mr Haskens replied that when Mr Gilmore voted for it, he stated that it was a shilly, shally, namby pamby, nasty kind of a bill. (Great laughter)

Mr Morris, of Illinois, referred to a remark made by him at the last session, that the Administration would break down, and find they were carrying too much weight. The Administration was rotten, and had no more affiliation with the Democracy than darkness with light, or virtue with vice.

The President has again thrust in our faces his Territorial policy, and has advanced several steps from his former position which was bad enough. He had made a high bid for the nomination at Charleston. He was glad the President had looked forward to the perpetuation of his power, and was ready to bow at any sectional altar to obtain his end.

At the close he gave way for a ballot.

Twenty-third Ballot.

Whole number	208
Necessary to a choice	105
Sherman	101
Maynard	65
Remainder scattering.

Arrival of the Arago.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.

The Steamship Arago arrived this evening from Havre and Southampton, bringing London dates to the 14th, being 4 days later that previously received.

Among her passengers is Senator Seward who had a grand reception, amid firing of guns, &c.

The ship Monmouth, from Fleetwood bound to Savannah, has been wrecked. The crew were saved.

Lord Woodhouse has been selected as the second Plenipotentiary of England to the European Congress.

Marshal Randon, the French Minister of war has resigned.

The Moors had made two attacks upon the Spanish redoubts, in Morocco, and had been repulsed, loosing 300 killed and 1.000 wounded. The Spaniards lost 70 killed and 300 wounded.

The Canada arrived at Queenstown on the 12th.

FRANKFORT, December 21.

Speech of Hon. John C. Breckenridge.—Vice President Breckenridge spoke to night in the hall of the House of Representives He discussed briefly the important political issues of the day, and assumed a bold and decided position on the question of slavery. He would stand by the Dred Scott Decision, which he fully indorsed and approved. He denied that Congress possessed the power to prohibit or abolish slavery in the Territories, nor had the Territorial Legislature any such power. He denounced "unfriendly legislation" against slavery in the Territories, and held that the South should stand by the laws of the Constitution, and require the same of others. Congress could protect slavery in the Territories, and ought to do so when necessary, though he regarded no necessity existing at this time for the enactment of protective laws. He then referred in strong terms to the Harper's Ferry affair, and declared that the Union was eminently endangered by the action of the Black Republican party. He opposed fillibustering and the reopening of the slave trade.

BOSTON, December 24.

Return of the Wanderer.—The Yacht Wanderer of Savannah, Capt Welton, from Flores, has arrived here. Welton reports that she sailed from Savannah in October, in charge of Capt. Martin, for the coast of Africa for a cargo of slaves, and that she touched at Flores and took on board two Portuguese women Capt Martin subsequently went ashore for provisions, taking with him the chronometer and charts. In his absence, Welton, the mate, got under weigh and steered for the coast of America. He made Fire Island first, and put into Tarpaulin Cove for a pilot.

Welton states that he was carried off without his will from Savannah, and Martin was an assumed name, and that his real name is Lincoln G. Patten, of Bath, Me.

The yacht is now in charge of the United States Marshal.

☞ The Nashville (Tenn) news, in an article vigorously opposing the proposed disunion movements in the South, truthfully says:

"We can put into an omnibus of ordinary size, and it will not be crowded at that, all the Northern men of all parties of sufficient notoriety for their names to have been familiar to the South, who recognize—who do not empathically deny and repudiate—the asserted Constitutional right to Territorial or Congressional protection to slave property in the Territories. As opposed to such protection, the public sentiment without respect to party, in all the free States, may be said to be unanimous.

"We earnestly trust that Tennessee will keep its skirts clear of this proposed Southern Convention, which will be but the forerunner of a proposed Southern Confederacy.

☞ The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

I learn that Governor Wise has laid before the joint Legislature over five hundred letters and documents, sent him upon the subject of the Harper's Ferry invasion. Part of John Brown's correspondence is also in Richmond, and more of it in Charleston, Virginia. This correspondence was wide-spread between Kansas and New England, and though names and dates, and places of writing are obliterated from some of the letters it nevertheless implicates persons, I am told now little suspected by the country.—The Committe in the Senate will bring these facts to light, but in all cases proof will be difficult.

"Fired of the Negro Question."—A subscriber writes to the Pittsburgh Journal, a Republican paper, saying: "I an an Old line Whig, and vote the Republican ticket; and I want to say to you that I am about tired of the negro question I think it is about time to attend to white men, and let the negroes alone. I perceive it is impossible to do them any good, and we would succeed as a party, we must drop the darkies." Sensible 'Old-line Whig," that—Lancaster Intelligencer.

A Shocking Affair.—A most frightful occurrence took place in the town of Bloomer, Montcalm County, on Thursday, the 15th inst. At the raising of a large barn, a couple of small boys were playing with a large broad-ax, when one of them suggested to his playmate to lay his head on a block, and let him cut it off; which was done, and the sharp heavy ax instantly severed the head from the body of the little fellow. Just at this instant a large "bent" of the frame was poised, mid air; but the men engaged in raising it were so shocked at the sight that they let go their hold, when the huge timbers with a tremendous crash, fell to the ground killing three men instantly.

Republican Frauds in New York.—The Republicans have been detected in the perpetration of gross frauds in the canvass of New York.—Mr Skinner, Democrat, was selected Canal Commissioner by a majority of about 250 on a poll of over 300 000 votes. The Republican returning officer in many counties contrived to make blunders in footing up the returns so as to place Mr. Skinner in the minority. The Democratic Canvassers had to send them back for correction. The election of Skinner was important, as it gave to the Democrats a majority of the Contracting Board, which has the disposal of the canal patronage.

Major Sprott of De Kalb.—This gentleman is favorably mentioned in connection with the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, by his numerous friends in this District. (the 10th.) There is no man in the State more deserving than the Major, and if he should be nominated by the Democracy at Indianapolis on the 11th of January and placed on the ticket, no man in the Northern part of the State will be more cordially supported than the Major who is a good Democrat and a capable business man—Columbia City News.

Opening of the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad.—The opening of this road has been delayed somewhat during the past week, by the fact that the half mile of unfinished track had been taken possession of by a party of laborers, who refused to make the connection unless several thousand dollars due them was previously paid. The Lafayette Courier says that on Saturday and amicable adjusment of the difficulties was effected, and the road completed A locomotive ran out to the State line and back on Saturday, and a through train was to have been started on Monday.

Abolition Outrage in Kansas.

The St Louis Democrat (Freesoil) publishes the following The spirit of old Brown must have winged its flight back to Osawatomie:

Osawatomie, Dec. 15.

Report, of a reliable character, says that a man named Bell, living on Mulberry creek, in Bates county, Missouri, stated he had lost a negro, and had hearded of him near Osawatomie, in Kansas. He employed a Mr Bennett and Mr Brown to go with him in pursuit of said negro. The three started from West Point, Missouri, about the 7th inst., and returned the 9th. They reported that they stopped at a house to stay all night in the vicinity where the negro was hidden

Capt Snyder, hearing of them and their business, raised a company, consisting of several white men and the negro in question, and repaired to the house where the hunters were. The master spoke to him, calling him by name. The negro said that was not his name—that his name was Bob—that he was a free negro from Virginia. The company then rushed into the house and made the three men prisoners, and told them they intended to hang them My informant says that, after they had taken them out of the house, rope in hand, some distance, and calling a halt, stripped the overcoat off the master and put it on the negro; also, took the pistols off the master and belted them on the negro. They also took the hat of the darkey, and put it on the head of one of the invaders, and mounted the negro on his master's horse They then told them they would let them go provided they would pay the expenses of the war. After having stripped them of horses and equipage, they required some money to pay contingent expenses.

The owner of the slave presented them with fifty dollars, and asked them if that would do.—The captain remarked that would be sufficient. They hired a carriage and reached West Point on the evening of the 9th. One of them reached home bare headed, as he did not choose to wear the negro's hat

☞ An officer, with a requisition in his pocket from the Governor of Maine, recently went to Illinois to bring up Mr. Cilley, charged with abducting the daughter of Mr. Witherell, of Dexter. He secured the object of his pursuit, took the Grand Trunk for home, and arriving at Montreal, the prisoner informed the officer that he had concluded to tarry a while in Victoria's dominions; and he did, being in a foreign country.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Mobile (Ala) Advertiser says:

General Scott returned from San Juan on Monday. He is at home in twelfth street, engaged in writing his dispatches to the State Department, and is not to go on to Washington for two weeks at least. He looks hale and hearty, and says he is decidedly invigorated by his trip The General, you know, is 74 years old. The other two senior officers in the army, Wool and Twiggs are both over seventy. It is not at all unlikely that they all pass away within the next five years, and the command of the army will then undoubtedly, devolve upon the hot headed and rash, though gallant Gen. Harney, who will do his best to give his troops plenty of employment. Harney is a Kentuckian by birth, and a true hearted Southerner in sentiment. General Scott, though a Virginian, voted for Fremont in 1856. Wool is a New Yorker, and Twiggs a Georgian. Both are Democrats.

☞ We know that Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Remedies are all they claim to be. The Doctor presented us with a few bottles of his Scandinavian Blood Purifier and boxes of his Blood Pills last Summer, which put new life into us. They invigorate, strengthen, and leave the system in a better condition than stimulants usually do, and have no depressing effect. We feel safe in recommending the Blood Purifier to all suffering from debility, be the cause what it may, the Pills have this peculiarity they are powerful to cure, and at the same time leave the patient stronger and in an improved condition, different from most drastic cathartics. Try them with the Blood Purifier and you will feel like many who have been relieved, and willing to bed your test money to their efficacy.

Dr Hostetters Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constitution and nervous debility, it can not be approached. Every day new cases of its great effects are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment, to that which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. It is mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of the community. All that will be necessary to convince the skeptical of its highly effects, is to purchase a bottle and be convinced.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY Of the Age.

Mr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds, a remedy that cures

Every Kind of Humor

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hubdred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of Pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth or stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure running and corrupt ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrotula.

One tablespoonful per day prevents chills & fever.

A bench is always experienced after the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, MASS.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice I do it with a full knowledge of its curative power in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle, your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers: and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessing to your husband and family.

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

In the advanced stages of

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach: then to the intestines and

creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up, then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best days is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE.

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint ween you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases, the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease, and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb "An ounce of prevention is better than an pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventitive and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you any injury.

No change of diet necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

Directions for use.—Adults one tablespoonful per day. Children over ten years a dessert spoonful.—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Yours truly, DONALD KENNEDY.

The Celebrated Copper Toe!

Mitchell's Patent Metallic Tip

Designed Especially for

BOYS' YOUTHS' & CHILDREN'S

BOOTS & SHOES

AN IMPROVEMENT has been applied to Boots and Shoes by which a saving of expense to the consumer of two-thirds, is realized by actual experiment.

THE TIP

consists of a piece of copper or other indestructable material, neatly fastened to the toe of the boot or shoe, forming a complete protection. This invention now presented to the public with the fullest knowledge of its practical utility having been tested over two years, and is destined entirely to supersede the old style, for CHILDREN, BOY'S & YOUTH'S Boots and Shoes.

The importance of this invention will be readily appreciated, as it is well known that children invariably wear out their boots and shoes FIRST AT THE TOE, and, with this protection, they will upon an average, wear at least two or three times as long as the old style, while the expense is

But a Trifle More.

This invention is also especially applicable to Miner's Boots, and all applications subjecting the toe of the boot or shoe to be cut or worn.

Merchants, and the public generally, will see the importance of obtaining these goods immediately, as they are destined, for general use to supersede all other kinds.

The Goods may be obtained of early all the wholesale dealers in the principal cities, or of the subscribers,

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago Railroad.

PITTSBURGH, December 12, 1859

I herewith submit, for the information of the public and all concerned, a copy of an order made on the 7th instant, by the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio, appointing me Receiver of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Rail Road Company, and I desire to make a statement of facts to the end that mis-statements and misapprehensions may be corrected.

1. Mr Charles Moran, one of the parties to the suit, is not as has been stated, President of the New York and Erie Rail Road Company; he was President of that Company, but signed his office sometime ago, and is now engaged in private business as a banker.

2. Mr Moran and Mr Von Hoffman, are either in their own right or in trust for others, both Bondholders and Stockholders for the Company to large amounts, and may be regarded as the leading representatives of the principal interests in the Bonds and Stock of the Company held on the Continent of Europe. Messrs. Moran and Von Hoffman are sustained in their movement by other powerful interests in the Stock and Bonds of the Company held in this country; and by the action of Mr John Ferguson, Trustee, in all the mortgages of the Company, except the Allegheny Bridge Mortgage, and the Ohio and Pennsylvania first two Mortgages, the original Trustee of which, Mr John J Palmer, is dead — Mr Ferguson has already become, or will become, a party to the suit in Ohio.

3. A Receivership, or other like conservative measure, for the protection of the property from conflicting claims, had become inevitable. No intelligent Director, I believe, denies that fact; the debatable points were: Where the Receivership should be created, who should be Receiver, and what his duties.

4. It is not true, so far as I have knowledge, that the proceeding in Ohio was intended to be hostile to the interests of the Company or any of its creditors; it was a conservative movement to put the property under the control of a competent court, and the affairs of the Company could be readjusted on a permanent basis, and at the same time to preserve an independent operation of the road.

5. The moving parties, representing as they do, a vast interest in the Road, and having superior rights in it under First Mortgage Bonds, had an unquestionable right both in law and in morals to select the forum where their rights should be adjudicated. The Ohio Court selected was the proper forum, for the reasons among others, that, in that State, the corporation originated, and there is the greatest lenght of its Road, and its largest land traffic. Parties in interest in Pennsylvania have no just reason to complain that the Ohio Court was selected. In this opinion a majority of stockholders and creditors will agree.

6. The suit in Ohio was ex parte and on short notice, for the reason, that the moving parties anticipated and feared similar proceedings in Pennsylvania, by what they regarded as hostile interests.

7. It is not true, as has been reported, that I had lately been to New York instigating and aiding Bondholders to this movement against the Company, or that I have wrongfully sided in it at Cleveland. Up to the day when the suit was brought at Cleveland, (December 6,) I knew nothing of its being intended. I reached Cleveland on 6th December, called there by an urgent telegraphic message, not explaining its object, but which I could not disregard; and I was there placed in circumstances that forced me to an acceptance of the Receivership, as a measure of of protection against the suit assuming a hostile character, and the trust being placed in the hands of a stranger. Of the wisdom and integrity of my course at Cleveland, I leave all parties to judge, when all the facts are known.

8. On being served with process at Cleveland, on afternoon of 6th December, I notified the President and Acting President of the suit, by telegraph, and suggested an immediate call of a meeting of the Board, at Crestline, and after the order for a Receivership was enjoined on 7th December, I telegraphed to J Edgar Thompson, at Philadelphia and G W Cass, at Pittsburgh, as follows:

Cleveland, Dec. 7, 1859.

"The order for a Receiver is granted ex parte, without prejudice to the rights of the Company, to move to vacate, or amend. I am named as Receiver, but my action will be conditional. In my estimation I have aimed to prevent the proceeding from assuming a hostile character; if I had not consented to my name being used, a stranger would have been named and urged on the Court. The Receivership was inevitable.—The order extends over the whole Road, and the powers are full. I will be in Pittsburgh tomorrow evening to meet the Board."

9. I took the oath and gave my bond as Receiver, on the morning of December 8th, on the advice of the largest private Stockholder in the Company, a man owning over $150,000 of the stock, whom I had called to Cleveland, by telegraph, for consultation, and who became my surety.

10. I reached Pittsburgh on morning of 9th instant, and found Mr. Da Puy in possession of the Company's property, as "Sequestrator," under proceedings taken two days after the suit brought in Ohio, and after notice as above of my appointment and I found, also that his clerks had gone over the whole line, claiming jurisdiction as Sequestrator, in defiance of my authority, and I have since advised that after my arrival here and notification to the President, Mr Thomson, and to Mr. Da Puy, of my authority, and while Mr. Da Puy's acts as Sequestrator were well known to Mr. Thomson, the Secretary of the Company, A. Bradly, left Pittsburgh and went over the line with the written authority of Mr Thomson, as President, to collect and receipt in his name, money held by the Company's Agents, and that money has been thus collected. Up to the time I came to Pittsburgh, on morning of December 9th, "I find made no move to execute my authority, nor even consented, to its public announcement, expecting first to meet the Board of Directors and report my doings for their consideration and action, and to be much governed by their proceedings, as to whether I would hold the trust or resign it as I had reserved the right to do. The action of the locals District Court here, aided as it was by the Chief Executive officers having knowledge of my proceedings, left me no alternative but to assert and maintain my authority as Receiver, and I took steps accordingly. The public and concerned who may therefore judge who is responsible for hasty proceeding and the evils to to the business of the Road, for conflicting jurisdiction and divided authority. My authority was prior in time and general, the other was special and local, it asserted beyond any jurisdiction claimed by the Court granting it; hence the evils of conflict and divided authority.

11. It is not true, as has been stated, that I am hostile to the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company. In its proper sphere I am a friend to that Company, and I look upon its Railroad as a splendid monument of the wealth and public spirit of Pennsylvania and of engineering genius and skill, and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company should always be a friend and ally of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; but I am free to say I am not friendly to the Chief Executive management of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, when it lays its powerful hand upon the vitality and independence of the whole property, to wit: the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne, and Chicago Railroad, in which I have staked my fortune, to which I have devoted the best energies of the years of my life, and which it has been my pride and my hope to see developed to its proper rank, as a great national line among American Railways, productive alike of good to the public, good to the communities on its route, good to the great cities that are its termini, and good to all who have invested their money or property in it.

For these ends I have labored, and for these ends I will labor so long as I have any connection with the Road as a Director and no officer of the Company, or no Receiver under the powers now vested in me. The extent and charater of those powers will appear in the order itself.

JOSEPH K. EDGERTON, Receiver.

[Here follows the order made by the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio, appointing Mr. Edgerton as Receiver, empowering him to take possession of the road, defining his powers and duties, &c.,—the substance of which has already appeared in the Sentinel.

Small Pox in a Railroad Car.

Quite an amusing scene occurred in the cars some time ago, between New Brunswick and Princeton, and as I was an eye witness, I consider it too good to be lost, so through your columns I will present it to the public.

When the cars stopped at the Princeton depot, a gentleman and lady, with considerable baggage, entered the one in which I was sitting after having their baggage safely locked up in the baggage car, with the exception of a small handbox, which the gentleman brought in the cars with him. They took a seat near me, the gentleman facing the lady; the hand box he placed on a seat behind her. As she was rather good looking than otherwise, I took the liberty of inquiring of a gentleman sitting near me who they were, and received the information desired. The gentleman I thought was one of the above mentioned couple, but was gazing out of the window of the car, when I heard a voice near me exclaim:

"Sir?"

This was spoken rather loudly, and with considerable emphasis. I looked around, and my eyes fell immediately upon the lady as I gentleman before referred to. I saw at a glance there was something wrong for the lady looked pale, her lips quivered, and she was the picture of distress.

"What did you say, sir; what did you say?" cried the lady, while from the change of her countenance, I felt assured that he had said something that was rather against the grain.

"The small box is behind you ma'm," said the young gentleman, with a look of surprise at the, young lady's altered appearance.

"The small box behind me! screamed she it the top of her voice, "Where, where, Mr. Y., where? I have not a trunk—"

"Behind you, ma'am, on the next seat behind you," said the young gentleman in a high tone, for the cars made such a rattling that he could not have been heard if he had attempted to speak lower.

"Oh! Mr. Y., for heaven's sake, save me! do—oh do—I know I shall smash it; I never had it; I never have been vaccinated—and—and—oh, let me out; let me out, oh, let me get from another car—I can't stay here—I—I—I—I'll surely catch it—I feel it already—it's coming—yes, it's coming—ough—ough." Then calming herself a little, she said very cravingly:

"Oh! Mr. Y. wont you let me get out of this car, I never have been vaccinated—and—"

The young gentleman looked as though he had been trying to get a word in edgewise, but it was no use. At last he made out:

"What matter is the matter with you?" said he, as he stopped to take breath.

"The small box is on the seat behind you," thundered Mr. Y. This was enough. From the manner in which Mr. Y. spoke, she thought he was frightened too, so with a bound she cleared the seat, and made for the door. Several gentlemen thinking she meant to kill herself, rushed to her, and detained her from going out of the car.

"Let go of me," said she, "I tell you let go of me—I will go out, I know I'll catch it, I tell you I never had it, and I have never been vaccinated, and if I catch it I'll die—yes, I know I will—oh, let me out, let me out—oh please let me out, I have never been vaccinated—I—I" and the tears began to run in great profusion.

"Mr. Y., I call on you for protection," screamed the affrighted lady. "Oh let me out; let me out I feel it coming, yes I do, oh, oh, he, hee—ho," said the young lady, while the tears gush ed forth like rain. "I have never been vaccinated—let me out—let me out—I'll catch the small pox."

"What does all this mean," exclaimed several gentlemen, but no one knew. At least Mr. Y. got near the lady, and with a voice like thunder said, "there is no small pox in the cars! What under heaven are you making such a fuss about?"

"No small pox in the cars, sir—no small pox in the cars sir!—Why, you told me that—that—the small pox was on the seat behind me; I know I have got it; I tell you I have never been vaccinated. Oh! Mr. Y., it is all your fault—yes, all your fault—you seated me there—yes you did, and you knew it—I'll tell my parents of you, too—let me get out—let me get out," cried the, while her eyes fairly glistened with rage

"I tell you ma'am, the small pox is not in the cars and I have not said so. It is the small POX," said he with a great of emphasis, at the same time holding up the hand box before her. She stood gazing at the box for some minutes during which time not a word was spoken, and if it had not been for the noise of the cars as they sped on their way, one might have heard a pin drop. At last she drew a long breath, and said she:

"Oh, I am so glad! I thought you said small pox, and I have never been vaccinated—but" and remembering where she was, she sank down in the seat nearest to her, and did not raise her head again until she arrived at her place of destination. When she took her departure from the cars, with her hand hanging low, we did the same, and until the cars had got nearly out of sight.—Those who witnessed the laughable scene of the small hand box, will never forget it, and many a jolly laugh I have had over it, as I repeated the story to my friends.

The Reason.

They tell me that I am handsome yet,
And all the ladies say,
"Do look at him! the dear old man
Grows younger every day."
And when each friend asks, "At your age
How come you here from this?"
I always answer, "In my youth
I paid my Printer's Bills!"

☞ We are afraid very few of our readers will receive such compliments from the ladies, when they grow old—unless they mend their manners and become more punctual.

How Jack became a Democrat.

The most bigoted and unreasonable party man I ever met with, was Jack.

Jack was a red hot abolitionist, and his chief pleasure seemed in making the fact as notorious as possible. His friends and associates, with one consent, pronounced Jack a bore and his politics a nuisance.

One day Jack met at the house of a friend a young lady of great personal beauty and accomplishments. Attracted by her loveliness and captivated by her intelligence, her bestime assidions to his attentions forgot for a while his "principles," and without inquiring what might be the political preferences of his lady lora imprudently proposed, was accepted, and they were married.

The wedding was over, the guests had departed, and the happy pair had retired to their chamber, and were snugly unscussed in bed, when Jack in the course of a quiet conversation with his wife, unwittingly alluded to his favorite subject, by casually speaking of himself as a Republican.

"What! exclaimed his wife, turning sharply and suddenly towards him, are you a Republican!"

"Yes, replied Jack delighted with the idea of finding a patient listener to his long unrestrained oratory. Yes madam, I am

Have Your Quarters Ready!—Our carrier desires us to give notice that he will be round with his Annual Address early on Monday morning. It is rich and racy, containing both truth and poetry, and he hopes the public whom he has faithfully served the past year, through sunshine and storm, heat and cold, will remember his services, and have their quarters ready when he calls.

President's Message.—The President, tired of waiting for the House to organize, sent in his Message on Tuesday. We publish it in a Supplement, so as to relieve our columns of its length and give our readers other and more interesting matter.

The message is of medium length and gives a full and fair view of the state of our country and its foreign and domestic affairs. On the everlasting Kansas question, the President takes the ground that the Supreme Court settled the question of slavery in the territories, giving to all the right to take their slaves into new territories, and have them protected there under the the Constitution, and that neither Congress nor the people of the territory have any authority to annul or to impair this vested right. Nothing, the President contends, can be done with the matter, until the territory becomes a state. This opinion, however acceptable to the South, does not agree with the views generally entertained by northern Democrats, and we much fear its promulgation will add but little to the harmony of the party, and have a disastrous effect on the next campaign. The whole matter belongs strictly to the people of the territory, and ought to be left for them to dispose of as they think best.

No Organization.—Congress is still busily engaged doing nothing. Speechmaking and squabbling, with an occasional quarrel and talk of pistols and coffee, fill up the time which ought to be devoted to the public business. In the meantime the mail contractors, who by the neglect of the last Congress to pass the necessary appropriation bill, have been left without pay for their services, are pressing their claims for an immediate appropriation, and have notified Congress that unless means are taken to pay them before the first of January, they will be compelled to throw up their contracts and stop carrying the mails. The inconvenience to the whole country of having the mails stopped must be obvious to the meanest capacity; but our Solons do not appear to see it; or if they do, they think it of less importance than the "called session" who forms the great staple of their debates. What a blessing it would be if all the mummmiacs, north and south, who seem only to have the one idea of slavery in their addled pates, could be driven out of Congress, and their places filled by sensible men who could devote themselves to the interests and business of the white element in our population. It is time they should receive attention; the blacks have monopolized the time of Congress long enough.

On Thursday, Mr. English nominated Charles L. Scott of California for Speaker, who, he said, ought to be satisfactory to every national man. The 24th ballot was then taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	210
Necessary to a choice	106
Sherman	102
Scott	83
Gilmer	14
Scattering	11

The delay to organize is entirely owing to the obstinacy of the republicans, who persist in running Sherman, when it is evident he cannot and ought not to be elected. If they would nominate a more national man—one less tinctured with abolitionism, and free from the charge of endorsing Helper's infamous book—he could be elected; but they refuse to do this, and seem determined to force Sherman on the House, or prevent any business being done.

Health of Senator Douglas.—Our readers will be gratified to learn that Mr. Douglas' health is so far restored that he was able to take his seat in the Senate on Monday and Tuesday last, where he was hailed with the most flattering testimonials from his brother Senators.

Mr. D's health is so far reestablished that he has abandoned the intention of spending the winter in Florida, and will remain in Washington.

Minnesota.—On the 15th inst., the Minnesota Legislature elected Morton S. Wilkinson, U. S. Senator, to succeed Gen. Shields, whose term expired in March last. The first ballot stood—Wilkinson 79, Shields 33, W. A. Gorman 1.—Mr. Wilkinson is a Republican of the ultra Seward stripe.

The "Martyr" John Brown.

As many ostensible christians persist in canonizing the murderous old ruffian who met his deserts at Charlestown, and claim that he has sanctified the gallows, which hereafter will be looked upon with as much reverence as the cross, we give below the evidence that he was guilty of the most barbarous murders in Kansas, actually dragging out of their beds and murdering six unoffending men in one night! This was the first bloodshed in that miserable contest, and the cause of all that followed. It has been said in excuse for this atrocity, that Brown was crazed by having two sons killed in Kansas, and that he perpetrated it to avenge their deaths. This is utterly false, as the dates of the different transactions show that Brown's murders at Osawatomie were committed nearly two months before his sons were killed, and were in fact the cause that led to their death. And yet in the face of this damning evidence of the guilt of this hoary ruffian, we see him held up as a saint and martyr, and even clergymen desecrating their pulpits by blasphemously comparing him with, or even elevating him above, the Saviour of mankind. Out upon such madness and blasphemy!

R. ad the letter below, from a correspondent of the State Journal, the leading republican print in the state, and then say if any sane, honest, or christian man or woman can consistently or conscientiously hold up such a blood stained murderer as a martyr, hero, or a model for imitation:

Correspondence of the Indianap. Journal.

More about John Brown's Career

Lawrence, Kansas, Dec. 17.

A "John Brown" anti-slavery meeting was held in Lawrence last evening, Dec. 16th. After some of the speakers had lauded Brown as a second Jesus, and one of them alluded to the Pottawatomie massacre, which has been laid at John's door, Mr Stevens said he did not believe John Brown had anything to do with it; but there was a gentleman present who could testify to that fact. "Name him," "name him," several called out, "It is Captain Walker," (now Sheriff of Douglas County and one of the bravest of the Free State leaders.) Captain Walker arose and said, "Gentlemen there is no use in keeping back the truth or perverting facts. John Brown told me himself that he was present at the murder of those men at Pottawatomie Creek." This startled like a thunder clap the defenders of Brown. He proceeded, "I am ready to take an oath that John Brown made such a statement to me. I know more about this matter than I am state, especially as it would implicate as actors in that murder, some persons now in this room. John Brown had those men in his power, and he could have kept them prisoners. For himself he never could justify taking a man prisoner and the deliberately cutting his throat. Old Tiffus, whom he took prisoner, had threatened to cut his throat, had insulted his wife, and threatened her life, yet he never felt justified in taking his life when he got him prisoner."

Gov Charles Robinson also said that he believed that John Brown had acknowledged to him he was present and approved of the killing of those men on Pottawatomie Creek. He had not and could not justify the excesses committed by Free State men after they had the civil power in their hands.

Dr Adair, a nephew of John Brown, was questioned in reference to John Brown's connection with the Pottawatomie massacre. He said John Brown had told him that he was present at the killing of those men. But there were palliating circumstances connected with it.

I may add that there is no question what ever, from what I have heard from persons who knew the facts, that John Brown planned and carried out that massacre. The facts come to me from men who stand among the most truthful of men in Kansas. The truth is, the less Republicans license Old Brown, the better. "Redpath," who is lionizing him for the purpose of making money from the sales of his life, may stand well with Eastern Abolitionists as to truthfulness, but does not stand so with people in Kansas. Our best Republicans in Kansas know that he has willfully lied in his recent statements about John Brown. KANSAS.

Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, & Chicago R. R. We have nothing definite in regard to the difficulties between this company and its bondholders, although the belief that an amicable arrangement or compromise will be effected seems to gain ground. We hope such may be the fact, and that such changes may be made in the management of the road as will restore public confidence and satisfy the stockholders as well as bondholders that their investment is safe.—We have always contended that with proper management this ought to be one of the best paying railroads in the west, and we have as yet seen nothing to induce us to change this opinion.

The District Court at Pittsburgh, has ordered T. Haskins Du Puy, the Sequestrator, to apply out of the revenue of the Road, such amount as may be reasonably sufficient for the payment of employes, the making of necessary repairs, and other expenses. The order did not cover the back wages of the employees.

The Board of Directors on the Fort Wayne, and Chicago Road met at the Lapiere House, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, and appointed a Committee to confer with the Committee of New York bondholders, now in session.

LATER.—By last night's mail we learn that the committee of bondholders and board of directors of the road, on Thursday, after a very harmonious session, agreed upon W. B. Ogden, of Chicago, as Receiver.

J. K. Edgerton, Receiver, appointed by the U S. District Court of Ohio, has resigned.

Gibson Bailed.—W. H. Gibson, the Ohio Treasury defaulter, has been admitted on bail in the sum of $10,000, to appear before the Court, January 26th, 1860, when the motion for new trial will be argued. He has gone home to Tiffin.

Stolen Goods Recovered.—Two months ago two boxes of goods, stolen from Col. Truesdale, of Detroit, were recovered at our depot by officers who had traced them here. The goods consisted of valuable wearing apparel, jewelry, &c., to a large amount. Col. Truesdale had been abroad, leaving his goods locked up in his house; on his return the robbery was discovered, and the officers finding two boxes had been shipped under suspicious circumstances at Royal Oak for Fort Wayne, came here and found they were part of the stolen property. The thieves had previously been arrested and are in jail in Detroit. About $2,000 worth of goods were stolen.

☞ There are 568 prisoners in our Penitentiary—far more than can be properly taken care of, or profitably employed. It is certainly time Gov. Willard should come to his senses, and allow the work to be commenced on the new prison located here by the commissioners.

Suit in the Penitentiary.—Our Common Pleas Court has been doing a wholesale business this week.

On Saturday last, at a special term of this Court, Wm Countryman was found guilty of receiving stolen goods; on Monday he was sentenced to the penitentiary for 3 years, and disfranchised 3 years.

On Tuesday, Mary Ann Bush was convicted of perjury, and sentenced to the penitentiary for 2 years.

On Wednesday, Wm J Langan was acquitted on a charge of stealing a coat from Daniel O'Connell, at the Palace Hall.

On Thursday, John Shuey was convicted of stealing clothing in Lafayette township, and sentenced to the penitentiary 1 year, and to be disfranchised 2 years.

They have all been sent off to Jeffersonville, except John Shuey. He is the only prisoner now in our jail—a fact which speaks well for our county.

Another Murder in Indianapolis.—Indianapolis is getting to be a hard place, and murders are becoming as common as in much larger cities. On Wednesday the dead body of a man was discovered in Pogue's Run, at the crossing of East Street. There were two pistols shot wounds above the left eye. His name it is supposed was Edward Ott, and he is said to be a plasterer, and to have been some time in the city. No money was found on his person, nor is there any clue to the murderers.

☞ There is a large amount yet due on the subscription for keeping the Free Schools open last season, which ought to be paid up. The trustees had to use part of the funds which belong to the coming year, in order to make up the deficiency, and now hope the delinquents will pay without further delay. Mr M F Barber will shortly call on them for the purpose of collecting the subscriptions, and we hope, for the credit of our city, that they may be paid.

☞ We have had enough snow this week to keep the sleighing good, and it remains first-rate. It is seldom we have as long a spell of uninterrupted good sleighing in this region as we are now enjoying, and it is perhaps needless to add that it has been fully improved.

The Thermometer this morning stood at 15° below Zero.

Clerk of the Supreme Court.—At the democratic convention held at Delphi, Carroll Co., on the 24th inst, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the delegates from this county to the State Convention, to be held on the 11th day of January next, be and they are hereby instructed to support, first and last, JAMES H. STEWART, as a candidate for the nomination of Clerk of the Supreme Court. That we unhesitatingly recommend him to the Democracy of Indiana, as one of the standard bearers of our party in the campaign of 1860! That from his 25 years experience as Clerk of the Circuit Court of this county, he is eminently fitted for that position; and that from his life long adherence to the principles of democracy, and the uniform success that has always attended him in the political contests of this county, as well as his gentlemanly deportment and extensive acquaintance throughout the State, he will add strength to the democratic ticket, and give it a prestige of victory.

Citizens' Bank.—J. D. Nottman, at his Bank on Calhoun Street, north of Reed's Drug Store, receives any current Bank Notes on deposite, and gives certificates payable in gold, at 30 days after date. This is a favorable arrangement for those wishing to procure specie.

☞ We are under renewed obligations to MOSES DRAKE, for a can of the largest, best, and finest oysters we ever had the pleasure of eating. MOSES is a liberal man—a gentleman and scholar—and his remembrance of the printer during this season of festivity shows that his heart is in the right place.

His reading room still continues a centre of attraction, and is nightly thronged with young men, reading news from all parts of the world, and acquiring much valuable information, who but for this might be driven to resort to questionable places, and acquire habits that would lead to misery and destruction.

If any one wanted a dish of good oysters, served up right, DRAKE's is the place to get it. He also sells oysters by the can—the best and freshest that can be got—on reasonable terms. Leave of oysters give him a call.

DENTISTRY.—Dr Talbot has been practising the dental profession in this city for a year, during which time he has executed some fine specimens of his skill as a dentist, giving entire satisfaction to all who have availed themselves of his services, and acquiring a high reputation. He has had many years experience, and is without doubt one of the first dentists in the country.—We therefore feel we are doing a favor to those afflicted in their teeth, in directing them to a place where their afflictions can surely be remedied.

Dr Talbot may be found at his residence on Wayne Street, between Harrison and Webster; or orders can be left at Ward's China Store, on Calhoun Street.

Cheap Music.—We refer lovers of good music to the advertisement of "Our Musical Friend," and "Solo Melodist," published by C. B. Seymour & Co., 197 Nassau Street, New York. We have received copies of both works, and can confidently recommend them as the best and cheapest music books published. Our Musical Friend contains 12 full sized pages of choice piano and vocal music, beautifully printed, price only 10 cents a number, $5 00 per year or $2 50 for six months. The Solo Melodist contains 12 pages of music for the flute, violin, accordion, &c. for 10 cents, or $2 50 per year. The music furnished in these publications for one year, could not be procured in any other form for $100.

☞ Elbridge G. Paige, the originator of the New York Mercury, and the author of the "Dow Jr. Sermons," committed suicide at San Francisco on the 14th inst.

Resolution in the Stone Crock Business.—H. N. Ward, at his Queensware, and China establishment, Calhoun Street, opposite the public square, is now selling stone crocks, of the best quality, from the first Ohio manufactories, at the reduced price of EIGHT CENTS A GALLON! He will keep a large stock so as to be able to fill all bills from country dealers at an hour's notice. Ward is doing much for the country, and building up quite a reputation for our city as a wholesale point, by introducing the first quality of goods—he won't keep anything else—and selling them so much below the ordinary prices of the indifferent ware heretofore sold here.

He is now selling off the remainder of his Toys, Motto Cups, Vases, and other Holiday Gifts at a great reduction. They must be sold and those who call first will get the best bargains.

WASHINGTON, December 27.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in his report does not doubt the actual receipts of the Treasury for the present and next fiscal year will be fully equal to the estimates. If the appropriations made at the present session do not exceed the amounts contained in the estimation, it is believed they can be met with ordinary and extraordinary receipts provided by law.

The estimated balance that will be in the Treasury by the 30th of June next is only $3,530,000, and leaves no margin for additional appropriations.

If therefore the appropriations should exceed the estimates, or Congress should determine to provide within this period for the payment of any portion of the public debt, it will become necessary to make provision for such contingencies. If additional demands are created upon the Treasury by legislature during the present Congress, provision must be made to meet them by such increase of tariff duties as may be required for that purpose; to which he respectfully refers Congress to his last report, containing the views of the Department on that subject, as no provision was made for the permanent redemption of any portion of the $3,000,000 of Treasury notes, as the authority for issuing them will expire on the 30th day of June next. It will be necessary for Congress to extend the law for that purpose to another period.

The Postmaster General gives an interesting account of the affairs of the Department and advocates various reforms, and trusts Congress will either give its express sanction to the specific mail contract between Portland and N. Orleans by voting the necessary appropriation, or will indicate for the department such a course as shall warrant it in closing with some one of the proposals which have been received and now held under advisement. He urges action to secure suitable postoffices at New York and Philadelphia, and recommends the repeal of the clause in the act of 1858, which declares that in forwarding the mails to foreign countries the preference shall be given to American over foreign steamers, when departing from the same port, for the same destination, within three days of each other.

Dispatch is of the highest importance in the mission of this department, and hence that legislation which provides for retarding instead of accelerating the mails may be safely pronounced at least extraordinary in its character. The Postoffice Department, according to the theory of its organization, should be self-sustaining, and because of its peculiar situation, its functions should not be a charge on the common treasury. He advocates the Abolition of the franking privilege, and substitutes prepayment by stamps, when the abuses would fall where they belong.

The steamer Anacortes, which hastily left Washington several days ago, has nothing to do with the Maryland oyster difficulties, as supposed, but is on a secret Government service, the nature of which can not be ascertained. She is fully armed.

Senator Brown, of Mississippi, intimated to day his intention to attack that part of the President's Message which suggests the abolishing as the proper tribunal to afford adequate remedy in case of interference with the rights of master to his slave in the Territories, instead of recommending Congressional action for protection.

The Secretary of the Navy in speaking of the successful termination of the Paraguayan expedition, says that the cost of maintaining the seven purchased vessels, in commission, is not much greater than that of maintaining a single frigate; their acquisition enabled the Department to adopt more efficient measures for the suppression of the African slave trade. Since the commencement of the present Administration, twenty steam vessels have been added to the Navy; he therefore renews the recommendation for still further increase in the Navy.

The Secretary of War says out of the army of nearly 17,000 men not more than 11,000 are available for active service in the field, scattered over three millions of square miles. He hopes to make such alteration in the disposition of troops next season as will prevent any repetition of outrages in future on the Southern and Mexican border. He recommends the enlistment of men for mounted corps for six months, beginning in May. In actual battle with Indians success is more owing to individual skill in arms and horsemanship than to discipline. He recommends that provision should be made for retiring disabled and infirm officers as a means of promoting the efficiency of the army. It is not deemed advisable to proceed to the manufacture of rifles and cannon beyond those required for experimental purposes.

The Secretary of the Interior says that during the five quarters ending September, the sale of lands yielded over $2,107,000. Three million six hundred and seventeen thousand have been located with bounty warrants. Among several recommendations is, that a law be passed in the spirit of liberality to the settlers on unoccupied lands, allowing to each two years from date of filing his declaratory statement within which to make his proof and pay for his land, and at the same time making it incumbent on the President to offer at public sale, by proclamation, all lands that may be surveyed by the authority of Congress, at any time within two years after the plats of the survey have been approved.

He also suggests the manner of preventing frauds. All things considered, our relations with the various Indian tribes continued during the past year in a satisfactory condition. He regrets to add that if the official documents furnish sufficient evidence to justify belief, some of the most atrocious cases of murder and rapine have been committed by white men wearing the disguise of Indians.

[By Cable Dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.

Near the close of the last session of Congress, two prominent citizens of Louisiana presented a memorial charging Senators Slidell and Benjamin, of that State, with having procured an act of Congress surreptitiously confirming the Bonmare land grant, by which five hundred families were turned out of their homes in Louisiana, and several hundred thousand dollars' worth of property voted into the pocket of Slidell, with the allegation that Mr Benjamin received certainly ten thousand, and probably forty thousand dollars for his services in procuring the grant.—Congress having no time to examine the question, passed a joint resolution suspending the issuing of the patent until the end of this session of Congress, with a knowledge that this question would come before the committee of private land claims at this session, and that the memorialists are now in this city, renewing the charges. Mr. Benjamin, who is the party implicated, has been appointed Chairman of the committee to investigate his own conduct.

The Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee of the Senate have as yet done nothing but send for witnesses. It is said that Senator Seward will be examined before the Committee on his return. Most of the Senators have left this city to spend their Christmas holidays either at their homes or in New York and Philadelphia.

The Keystone Club of Pennsylvania, the most influential organization in the State, numbering among its members Mr Buchanan and all the leading Democrats of Pennsylvania, at a recent meeting in Philadelphia, adopted resolutions embodying the doctrine of popular sovereignty, as explained by Senator Douglas. It remains to be seen whether the men who have proscribed Mr. Douglas will attempt to read the Keystone Club out of the Democratic party; the Club which the citizens of Cincinnati will remember was a most powerful agent in securing the nomination of Mr Buchanan in 1856.

WASHINGTON, December 25.

A large number of the mail contractors have informed and continue to inform the Department that unless Congress makes appropriations early in January for the payment of what is due them they cannot continue the service which has been maintained by them in a manner although satisfactory to the department, but at great sacrifices. Their credit is now exhausted. Should they surrender their contracts, the extraordinary expenses of restoring the service will amount to not less than a million dollars—probably more. Their expectations that Congress would promptly pass a bill for their relief have been disastrously disappointed.

The Department has the money to pay all the sums now due for the quarter ending with September, but not the legal authority for that purpose. The expenses of the current quarter are not due till February. Over $1,000,000 are required on account of arrearages for the year ending with last June. The statements in indebtedness to contractors on which they have based money to the amount of $2,000,000 are in the hands of persons in this city.

WASHINGTON, December 28.

Governor Wise, in his last Richmond speech, broadly intimates that the Virginian military recently marched past the White House, and that the President did not even notice them.—As this remark of the Governor occasions some comment here, it may not be amiss to say that the President at that time was not at home, and did not know until he read the speech that the troops had passed the White House. The President is uniformly marked in his attentions to all visitors.

The speech of Mr. Morris (of Ill.) to day is in part complementary of the President and Administration, was made against Douglas and other Democratic Members of the Illinois delegation, who avow their desire to promote the harmony of party.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, December 27.

SENATE.—The President's annual Message was brought in by the President's Secretary.

Mr Iverson, of Georgia, moved that it be read.

Mr Collamer, of Vermont, objected, as the understanding among the Senators was that no business should be done during the Christmas week.

The question was debated by Davis, Fessenden, Bayard and others, when the motion of Mr Iverson prevailed: yeas, 23; nays, 12. The Secretary at the Senate then read the Message.

Mr Clingman, of North Carolina, proposed to postpone the consideration of the Message till January 3d.

Mr Bright, of Indiana, said it would be better to adopt the usual course. He moved that the Message and documents be printed, but asked that this motion lie over till after the holidays, as the Senate had no printer yet.

This course was pursued, and the Senate adjourned till Friday.

HOUSE.—The Message of the President was received.

Mr John Cochrane, of New York, moved that it be laid on the table until the House effects an organization.

Mr Craig, of North Carolina, moved to amend the motion so that the Message be received and read.

Mr Cochrane accepted the amendment.

Much excitement prevailed, the Republican members calling for the yeas and nays.

A call of the House was ordered.

Mr Stanton, of Ohio, argued that there was no precedent for reading the Message when the House was not organized.

Mr Craig then withdrew his amendment, and the original motion was agreed to.

Mr Houston, of Alabama, offered a resolution proposing a temporary Speaker for ten days, nothing to be done in the meantime except the passage of a bill to meet the deficiencies and liabilities of the Post-office Department, when the office should become vacant, until the House proceeded to the election of a Speaker.

The Republican side objected to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr Houston wanted it made known that the objection came from the Republicans, who pretended great sympathy for the Government mail contractors, but are not willing to adopt a measure with the view to their relief.

Mr Washburne, of Illinois, said they would accept the resolution if John Sherman's name was inserted in the blank.

Mr Washburn, of Maine, wished it to be known that the Republicans want to elect a Speaker for the whole term.

The roll of the House was called preliminary to a vote for Speaker.

The House then proceeded to the 22d ballot, with the following result:

Whole number, 208; necessary to a choice, 105.

Sherman, 101; Scott, of California, 17; Houston, 15; Gilmer, 14; Bocock, 14; McClay, 12; scattering, 35. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, December 29.

The Senate Committee on Printers have empowered Mr Bicnll, the Superintendent of Public Printing, to appoint a Printer to do the necessary work until the Senate succeeded in selecting a proper person for that office. Rumor says the Superintendent will appoint General Bowman.

In the House to day, Mr Cox of Ohio, declared that as a Northern Democrat he could not vote for a member of the Southern Opposition for Speaker.

The surmise that the necessities of the creditors of the Government would ultimately seduce members into an organization is taking active shape.

Mr Bristow, of Kentucky, to day made an attempt to present a memorial from these creditors which, however, was not received. It was understood that the memorialists desire to warn members that they will not proceed with the public work.

Messrs Collins, of Indiana, and Clark B Cochrane, of New York, who were the only persons present at the interview between Judge Douglas and Horace Greeley, say that Mr Kellogg's statements are utterly unfounded, and that it that passed is correctly and fully stated in the notes of Messrs Douglas and Greeley. They are willing to make this statement in the House, if requested.

Mr Haskins said he was conservative in principles, and should vote now, as heretofore, for John Sherman, whose Union sentiments met his entire approbation.

Mr English asked if he had not voted for Mr. Gilmore.

Mr Haskens replied he had voted for Gilmore because in the Thirty fifth Congress he stood alongside of himself and Mr Sherman, in opposition to the Lecompton policy of the Administration, which Mr English sought to cover up by a bill, which, in his opinion, was the meanest bill before the last Congress. (Laughter.)

Mr English called attention to the fact that Mr Gilmore himself voted for the English Bill.—(Laughter.)

Mr Haskens replied that when Mr Gilmore voted for it, he stated that it was a shilly, shally, namby pamby, nasty kind of a bill. (Great laughter.)

Mr Morris, of Illinois, referred to a remark made by him at the last session, that the Administration would break down, and find they were carrying too much weight. The Administration was rotten, and had no more affiliation with the Democracy than darkness with light, or virtue with vice.

The President has again thrust in our faces his Territorial policy, and has advanced several steps from his former position which was bad enough. He had made a high bid for the nomination at Charleston. He was glad the President had looked forward to the perpetuation of his power, and was ready to bow at any sacrifice at altar to obtain his end.

At the close he gave way for a ballot.

Twenty-third Ballot.

Whole number	208
Necessary to a choice	105
Sherman	101
Maynard	65

Arrival of the Arago.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.

The Steamship Arago arrived this evening from Havre and Southampton, bringing London dates to the 14th, being 4 days later than previously received.

Among her passengers is Senator Seward who had a grand reception, amid firing of guns, &c.

The ship Monmouth, from Fleetwood bound to Savannah, has been wrecked. The crew were saved.

Lord Woodhouse has been selected as the second Plenipotentiary of England to the European Congress.

Marshal Randon, the French Minister of war has resigned.

The Moors had made two attacks upon the Spanish redoubts, in Morocco, and had been repulsed, losing 300 killed and 1,000 wounded. The Spaniards lost 70 killed and 300 wounded.

The Canada arrived at Queenstown on the 12th.

FRANKFORT, December 24.

Speech of Hon. John C. Breckinridge.—Vice President Breckinridge spoke to night in the hall of the House of Representives. He discussed briefly the important political issues of the day, and assumed a bold and decided position on the question of slavery. He would stand by the Dred Scott Decision, which he fully indorsed and approved. He denied that Congress possessed the power to prohibit or abolish slavery in the Territories, nor had the Territorial Legislature any such power. He denounced "unfriendly legislation" against slavery in the Territories, and held that the South should stand by the laws of the Constitution, and resist the raids of others. Congress could protect slavery in the Territories, and ought to do so when necessary, though he regarded no necessity existing at this time for the enactment of protective laws. He then referred in strong terms to the Harper's Ferry affair, and declared that the Union was eminently endangered by the action of the Black Republican party. He opposed filibustering and the reopening of the slave trade.

BOSTON, December 24.

Return of the Wanderer.—The Yacht Wanderer of Savannah, Capt Welton, from Florida, has arrived here. Welton reports that she sailed from Savannah in October, in charge of Capt. Martin, for the coast of Africa for a cargo of slaves, and that she touched at Flores and took on board two Portuguese women. Capt Martin subsequently went ashore for provisions, taking with him the chronometer and charts. In his absence, Welton, the mate, got under weigh and steered for the coast of America. He made Fire Island first, and put into Tarpaulin Cove for a pilot.

Welton states that he was carried off without his will from Savannah, and Martin was an assumed name, and that his real name is Lincoln C. Pattan, of Bath, Me.

The yacht is now in charge of the United States Marshal.

☞ The Nashville, (Tenn.) news, in an article vigorously opposing the proposed disunion movements in the South, truthfully says:

"We can put into an omnibus of ordinary size, and it will not be crowded at that, all the Northern men of all parties of sufficient notoriety for their names to have been familiar to the South, who recognize—who do not emphatically deny and repudiate—the asserted Constitutional right to Territorial or Congressional protection to slave property in the Territories. As opposed to such protection, the public sentiment without respect to party, in all the free States, may be said to be unanimous.

"We earnestly trust that Tennessee will keep its skirts clear of this proposed Southern Convention, which will be but the forerunner of a proposed Southern Confederacy."

☞ The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

I learn that Governor Wise has laid before the joint Legislature over five hundred letters and documents, each one upon the subject of the Harper's Ferry invasion. Part of John Brown's correspondence is also in Richmond, and more of it in Charleston, Virginia. This correspondence was wide-spread, between Kansas and New England, and though names and dates, and places of writing are obliterated from some of the letters it nevertheless implicates persons, I am told, now little suspected by the country.—The Committe in the Senate will bring these facts to light, but in all cases proof will be difficult.

"Tired of the Negro Question."—A subscriber writes to the Pittsburgh Journal, a Republican paper, saying: "I am an Old line Whig, and vote the Republican ticket; and I want to say to you that I am about tired of the negro question. I think it is about time to attend to white men, and let the negroes alone. I perceive it is impossible to do them any good, and we would succeed as a party, we must drop the darkies." Sensible "Old-line Whig," that.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

A Shocking Affair.—A most frightful occurrence took place in the town of Bloomer, Montcalm County, on Thursday, the 15th inst. At the raising of a large barn, a couple of small boys were playing with a large broad-ax, when one of them suggested to his playmate to lay his head on a block, and let him cut it off; which was done, and the sharp heavy ax instantly severed the head from the body of the little fellow. Just at this instant a large "bent" of the frame was poised, mid air; but the men engaged in raising it were so shocked at the sight that they let go their hold, when the huge timbers with a tremendous crash, fell to the ground, killing three men instantly.

Republican Frauds in New York.—The Republicans have been detected in the perpetration of gross frauds in the canvass of New York.—Mr Skinner, Democrat, was selected Canal Commissioner by a majority of about 250 on a poll of over 300,000 votes. The Republican returning officer in many counties contrived to make blunders in footing up the returns so as to place Mr. Skinner in the minority. The Democratic Canvassers had to send them back for correction. The election of Skinner was important, as it gave to the Democrats a majority of the Contracting Board, which has the disposal of the canal patronage.

Major Spcott of De Kalb.—This gentleman is favorably mentioned in connection with the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court, by his numerous friends in this District. (the 10th.) There is no man in the State more deserving than the Major, and if he should be nominated by the Democracy at Indianapolis on the 11th of January and placed on the ticket, no man in the Northern part of the State will be more cordially supported than the Major who is a good Democrat and a capable business man.—Columbia City News.

Opening of the Logansport, Peoria and Burlington Railroad.—The opening of this road has been delayed somewhat during the past week, by the fact that the half mile of unfinished track had been taken possession of by a party of laborers, who refused to make the connection unless several thousand dollars due them was previously paid. The Lafayette Courier says that on Saturday and amicable adjustment of the difficulties was effected, and the road completed. A locomotive ran out to the State line and back on Saturday, and a through train was to have been started on Monday.

Abolition Outrage in Kansas.

The St Louis Democrat (Fressell) publishes the following. The spirit of old Brown must have winged its flight back to Osawatomie:

OSAWATOMIE, Dec. 15.

Report, of a reliable character, says that a man named Bell, living on Mulberry creek, in Bates county, Missouri, stated he had lost a negro, and had heard of him near Osawatomie, in Kansas. He employed a Mr Bennett and Mr Brown to go with him in pursuit of said negro. The three started from West Point, Missouri, about the 7th inst., and returned the 9th. They reported that they stopped at a house to stay all night in the vicinity where the negro was hidden.

Capt Snyder, hearing of them and their business, raised a company, consisting of several white men and the negro in question, and repaired to the house where the hunters were. The master spoke to him, calling him by name. The negro said that was not his name—that his name was Bob—that he was a free negro from Virginia. The company then rushed into the house and made the three men prisoners, and told them they intended to hang them. My informant says that, after they had taken them out of the house, rope in hand, some distance, and calling a halt, stripped the overcoat off the master and put it on the negro; also, took the pistols off the master and belted them on the negro. They also took the hat of the darkey, and put it on the head of one of the invaders, and mounted the negro on his master's horse. They then told them they would let them go; provided they would pay the expenses of the war. After having stripped them of horses and equipage, they required some money to pay contingent expenses.

The owner of the slave presented them with fifty dollars, and asked them if that would do.—The captain remarked that would be sufficient. They hired a carriage and reached West Point on the evening of the 9th. One of them reached home here headed, as he did not choose to wear the negro's hat.

☞ An officer, with a requisition in his pocket from the Governor of Maine, recently went to Illinois to bring on Mr. Cilley, charged with abducting the daughter of Mr. Witherell, of Dexter. He secured the object of his pursuit, took the Grand Trunk for home, and arriving at Montreal, the prisoner informed the officer that he had concluded to tarry a while in Victoria's dominions; and he did, being in a foreign country.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Mobile (Ala.) Advertiser says:

General Scott returned from San Juan on Monday. He is now at home in twelfth street, engaged in writing his dispatches to the State Department, and is not to go on to Washington for two weeks at least. He looks hale and hearty, and says he is decidedly invigorated by his trip. The General, you know, is 74 years old. The other two senior officers in the army, Wool and Twiggs are both over seventy. It is not at all unlikely that they all pass away within the next five years, and the command of the army will then undoubtedly, devolve upon the hot headed and rash, though gallant Gen. Harney, who will do his best to give his troops plenty of employment. Harney is a Kentuckian by birth, and a true hearted Southerner in sentiment. General Scott, though a Virginian, voted for Fremont in 1856. Wool is a New Yorker, and Twiggs a Georgian. Both are Democrats.

The Dr. presented us with a few bottles of his Scandinavian Blood Purifier and boxes of his Blood Pills last Summer, which put new life into us. They invigorate, strengthen, and leave the system in a better condition than stimulants usually do, and have no depressing effect. We feel safe in recommending the Blood Purifier to all suffering from debility, be the cause what it may, the Pills have the peculiarity, they are powerfully active, and at the same time leave the patient stronger and in an improved condition, different from most drastic remedies. Try them with the Blood Purifier and you will feel like many who have been relieved, and willing to bid your testimony to their efficacy.

Dr. Hostetters Bitters have received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constitution and nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of it great efficacy are chronicled throughout public journals. There is nothing equal to the antipasant, to that which the all cured experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its pure and vigorous action upon a debilitated stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body should recommend it to all classes of the community. HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

IT is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of living at the least amount of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of purifying, invigorating, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid function of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, as generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, according to directions on the bottle. For this disease no physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, backed upon scientific experiments, which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

Fever and Ague.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Liver Complaint, Jaundice, and all who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, exhausting her strength and vital fluid, and rendering it sickly. Use in such a case as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY Of the Age.

Mr. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common Pasture Weeds, a remedy that cures

Every Kind of Humor

FROM

The worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, [both thunder humor.] He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst form of Erysipelas.

One or two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure running and corrupt ulcers.

One bottle will cure pesly eruption of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

One tablespoonful per day prevents chills & fever.

A benefit is always experienced after the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, MASS.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilful physicians and the most worried Druggists in the country are on minutes in its favor.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice I do it with a full knowledge of its curative power, in relieving all, and curing most of those diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That unaccurate, racking disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle, your own keeper is granted quite natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful nights calm and sweet slumbers: and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessing to your husband and family.

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

In the advanced stages of

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and

creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best days pass. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE.

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases, the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from thistlebane, and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb "An ounce of prevention is better than an pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventive and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you any injury.

No change of diet necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.

Directions for use.—Adults one tablespoonful per day. Cull from four to ten years a dessert spoonful.—Children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

The Celebrated Copper Toe!

Mitchell's Patent Metallic Tip

Designed Especially for

BOYS' YOUTHS' & CHILDREN'S

BOOTS & SHOES

AN IMPROVEMENT has been applied to Boots and Shoes by which a saving of expense to the consumer of two-thirds, is sustained by actual experiment.

THE TIP

consists of a piece of copper or other indestructable material, nearly of the form of the toe of a boot or shoe, forming a complete protection. This invention was presented to the public with the fullest knowledge of its practical utility, having been tested over two years, and is destined entirely to supersede the old style, for CHILDREN, BOYS & YOUTHS' Boots and Shoes.

The importance of this invention will be readily appreciated, as it is well known that children invariably wear out their boots and shoes FIRST AT THE TOE, and with this protection, they will upon an average, wear at least two or three times as long as the old style, while the expense is

But a Trifle More.

This invention is also especially applicable to Miner's Boots, and all applications adjusting the toe of the boot or shoe to be of wood.

Merchants, and the public generally, will see the importance of obtaining these goods immediately, as they are destined, for general use to supersede all other kinds.

The finishing be obtained of early all the wholesale clothiers in the principal cities, or of the subscribers,
